JATHNIER CORPORATION

January 21, 2025

MEMO REF: 2025-00007
TO: ALL EMPLOYEES
FROM: HR DEPARTMENT
SUBJECT: Policy Update on Office Attendance and Time Discipline

It has been observed that some employees leave office premises after registering their attendance to purchase food and other personal items, often returning late. This practice affects productivity and disrupts work schedules.

We would like to remind everyone that once you have logged in, you are expected to be at your designated workstations and perform your assigned tasks. Leaving the office for personal errands during work hours without approval is not allowed and may result in corrective action.

Should you need to purchase food or other necessities, kindly do so before logging in or during your designated break times. We appreciate your cooperation in maintaining discipline and efficiency in the workplace.

Any employee who violates this policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action. Immediate superiors are expected to monitor compliance and report any violations to HR. For any concerns or clarifications, please contact the HR Department.

For your information and guidance.
