JATHNIER CORPORATION

20 February 2025

MEMO REF: 2025-00022
TO: ALL CONCERNED EMPLOYEES
FROM: HR DEPARTMENT
SUBJECT: Mandatory Use of Electronic Daily Time Record (DTR)

To ensure accurate and efficient tracking of employee attendance, all employees who are still using the manual DTR are directed to use the Electronic Daily Time Record (eDTR) system for clocking in and out during work hours, effective February 21, 2025.

This eDTR will serve as the official basis for payroll processing, leave computation, and compliance monitoring.

Guidelines for Compliance:

1. Employees must clock in and out using the electronic DTR at the start and end of their shifts.
2. Any technical issues encountered must be reported immediately to the HR Department for proper documentation and resolution.
3. Failure to comply with the electronic DTR policy may result in payroll discrepancies and possible disciplinary action.

Your cooperation in implementing this system is crucial in maintaining a fair and transparent attendance monitoring process. Should you have any questions or concerns, please contact the HR Department.

For your guidance and strict compliance.
