JATHNIER CORPORATION

25 February, 2025

MEMO REF: 2025-00024
TO: DEPARTMENT HEADS/OPERATIONS HEAD/AREA MANAGERS
FROM: HR DEPARTMENT
SUBJECT: No Letter of Transfer, No Entry to Branch/Office of Destination

In line with our company's policies and to maintain proper documentation and operational order, all employees transferring to another branch or office must have an official Letter of Transfer approved by the Operations Manager or Department Heads before reporting to their new assignment.

Effective immediately, any employee without a duly signed Letter of Transfer will not be allowed entry or permitted to work at the destination branch or office.

Guidelines:

1. Letter of Transfer Requirement
   - For OPERATIONS - The Letter of Transfer must be issued by the Supervisor, signed by the Area Manager and duly approved by the Operations Manager.
   - For OTHER DEPARTMENTS - The Letter of Transfer must be issued by the Section Head or Supervisor duly approved by the Department Head. If there is no Section Head or Supervisor, then it shall be issued by the Department Head.
   - It should indicate the effective date, new assignment location, and reporting and date of transfer.
   - The Letter of Transfer should be submitted by the Area Manager for Operations Department or the Department Head for other departments to the HR Department at least 2 days before the effectivity date of transfer for documentation.
   - The employee to be transferred must report to the new assignment 1 day before the effectivity date of transfer.
2. Entry Restrictions
   - The Supervisor/Head of the receiving branch or office are instructed to deny entry to employees who fail to present an official transfer letter.
   - Employees attempting to work in a new location without proper documentation will be marked absent without leave (AWOL).
3. Compliance and Enforcement
   - Area Managers/Department Heads must ensure proper coordination with HR before initiating employee transfers.
   - Any violations of this policy may result in disciplinary action.

For any clarifications, please contact the HR Department. Your cooperation is highly appreciated.
